

The goal of this Senior level course is to teach students college level literary analysis skills and prepare students to take the AP Exam , which helps them earn college credit.